PLEASE do not allow cell phones in my working environment!  It's annoying, disrespectful and keeps passengers from listening to emergency procedures and safety announcements.  Has it ever been proven that the use of hundreds of phones at the same time does not interfere with pilots' communications?  Let's really think this one through!!!